Alma Mater

*Gather 'round, ye loyal schoolmates, lift each voice 'til echoes ring,
Loudly praise our Alma Mater, 'tis of Pikeville C. we sing.
And in deepest care or sorrow, should we pause to think of thee,
Strong our hearts once more, as in the days of yore,
When we sing of our loyalty.*

*Orange and Black we hail thee, ever thy praises sing,
Oh, see our colors that stand for honor, and to us victory bring.
Orange and Black forever, we hail thee far and near,
On the field or in the hall, we will answer the call
For we love thee, our College dear.*

Loyalty Song

*We're loyal to you, Pikeville C.,
To the Orange and Black, Pikeville C.,
Your banner in hand, Comes a right loyal band,
They're the best in the land, Pikeville C.—Rah, Rah!
Where'er we may roam, Pikeville C.,
You'll still be our home, Pikeville C.,
Your arms are outspread to greet us, Shouting, you'll ever meet us,
With welcome to you, Pikeville C.*

*Fling out the orange and black, that's waving for you;
Lead on your sons and daughters, fighting for you,
Like men of old, on giants placing reliance,
Shouting defiance—Oskey, woe, woe!
To win you world-wide fame in many a land,
For honest labor and for learning we stand,
And unto thee we pledge our heart and hand,
Dear Alma Mater—Pikeville C.*

Let's Raise A Song

(TUNE: "Funiculi, Funicula")

*Come all ye loyal College sons and daughters,
Let's raise a song, let's raise a song.
Who will not sing the praise of Alma Mater,
Is going wrong, is going wrong.
Sing then, to vie with birds in tree tops bending
Our roundelay, our roundelay.
Let music wake the echoes never ending
The live long day, the live long day.*

CHORUS

*College, College, prospered may she be.
Pikeville College, the only one for me.
She's the queen of the rest,
She's the one I love best,

LES PORTES FLAMBEAUX

To become better acquainted with the French people, their leaders, their customs, and their philosophy of life is the purpose of Les Portes Flambeaux.

Programs centering around the lives of great Frenchmen and their influence on civilization afford glimpses of personages who have left a heritage of which "la belle" France may be justly proud. Then the programs, featuring current events and topics of the day, help to clarify sensational stories of such international problems as "l'affaire Stavisky" followed by the loss of confidence in the country and the riots of Paris. The formation of new cabinets, the death and funeral of King Albert, France's attitude toward Hitler and disarmament, Mussolini et Fascisme, Les Etats-Unis and payment of the war debt have been subjects for timely discussions.

The French viewpoint, as expressed in Le Petit Journal and in Courrier des Etats-Unis, is compared with the American one found in The New York Times, The Courier-Journal and in other American papers.

The best effort of the club, however, is being expended on an international correspondence between students of Pikeville College who study French and those in France and in her provinces, who study English. This correspondence has flourished immensely and the letters which the "realia" students are constantly receiving serve as a T. S. F. for them and as a radio for the club members.

If more students were engaged in such friendship-forming correspondences, as advocated by former President Wilson; it would be a potent factor for world peace in the future. One doesn't have difficulties that must be settled on the battlefield with people whom one understands.

Occasionally, such momentous questions as war and peace are left to the presidents of the two nations and we give the student body a good program as we did in Le Noël en France, or we give ourselves a jolly good party as we did at the home of James Amick.
